

Digital Delivers.

Maintain excellence by providing affordable and accessible digital course materials automatically.

Uninterrupted learning whether students are on-campus or remote

Ensure learning continuity using cloud-based materials delivered on any device

Engaging, high-quality digital experiences

Achieve educational objectives with the help of advanced study features on a world-class eReader platform

Significant cost savings

Maximize student savings with below-market textbook costs—always lower than print or other digital options

Equal access for all

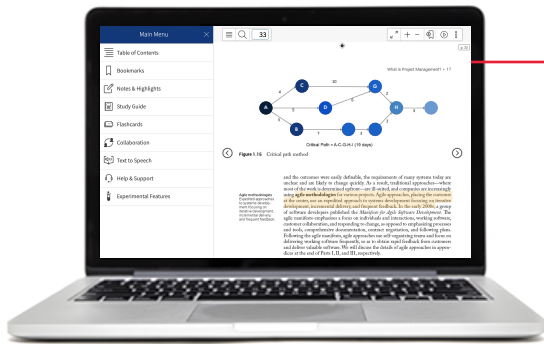

Overcome barriers to learning—regardless of student disability status—so all students have an equal opportunity to succeed

Quick and easy setup

Start the process with a single email, and we'll do the rest—nearly one million titles from over 400 publishers are already available

Now is the time for

The RedShelf eReader empowers your students to study more effectively, anywhere.

Study enhancement features like highlighting, note-taking, flashcards, and text-to-speech help achieve learning objectives.

The instructor dashboard delivers learner engagement data, including reading time, access instances, and annotations.

