

Current Program Curriculum

History Major (39-42 cr)

- A. Foundation Courses (30 cr)
1. HIS 298: Historical Methods (3 cr)
  2. United States History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  3. European History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  4. World/Transnational/Comparative History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  5. African, Asian or Latin American History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  6. HIS 398: Advanced Historical Methods (3 cr)

B. Capstone (3 cr)

Select one of the following

1. HIS 453: Research Seminar in American History (3 cr)
2. HIS 463: Research Seminar in European History (3 cr)
3. HIS 473: Research Seminar in World and Transnational History (3 cr)

- C. Elective Requirements (6 cr)
Six hours of upper division history electives, under advisement.
- D. Cognate Requirements (0-3)
Any approved General Education computer and information literacy course - OR - passing the computer and information literacy competency exam.

Note: A grade of C- or better must be earned in all courses credited toward the major.

Proposed Program Curriculum (changes are highlighted)

History Major (39-42 cr)

- A. Foundation Courses (30 cr)
1. HIS 298: Historical Methods (3 cr)
  2. United States History (6 cr)
- Select on at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  3. European History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  4. World/Transnational/Comparative History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  5. African, Asian, or Latin American History (6 cr)
- Select one at the 100-200 level and one at the 300 level
  6. HIS 398: Advanced History Methods (3 cr)

B. Capstone (3 cr)

1. HIS 495: History Research Seminar

- C. Elective Requirements (6 cr)
Six hours of upper division history electives, under advisement.
- D. Cognate Requirements (0-3)
Any approved General Education computer and information literacy course – OR - passing the computer and information literacy competency exam.

Note: A grade of C- or better must be earned in All courses credited toward the major.