

Family and Consumer Sciences Education Subjects - Initial Certification (CTE 7-12 grades) - BS Ed Degree (091)

| Current Program | New program | Justification |
|--|---|---|
|  CTE 307 (3) – Intro to CTE CTE 309 (3) - Curriculum CTE 312 (3) - Methods CTE 313 (3) – Assessment CTE 314 (3) – Class & Lab Mngt. CTE 444 (3) – Special needs CTE 445 (3) - Literacy CTE 485 (5) – Student Teaching I CTE 490 (5) – Student Teaching II HDV 323 (3) – Ado Development PSY 330 (3) – Ed Psychology PSY 100 (3) – Intro to Psychology COM 210/240/212 (3) – Communication SSHS 1020 DASA 1020 Content Area Specialization (36) 43 cr + 36 cr = 79 credits Total Graduation credit: 127  |  CTE 307 (3) – Intro to CTE CTE 309 (3) - Curriculum CTE 312 (3) - Methods CTE 313 (3) – Assessment CTE 314 (3) – Class & Lab Mngt. CTE 444 (3) – Special needs CTE 445 (3) - Literacy CTE 485 (3) – Student Teaching I CTE 490 (3) – Student Teaching II HDV 323 (3) – Ado Development PSY 330 (3) – Ed Psychology PSY 100 (3) – Intro to Psychology COM 210/240/212 (3) – Communication SSHS 1020 DASA 1020 CTE Electives (3 credits): CTE 347, CTE 348, CTE 310, CTE 352, CTE 465, CTE 466 Content Area Specialization (30) 39 cr + 3 cr + 30 cr = 72 credits Total Graduation credit: 120  | The Family and Consumer Sciences Education program revision aims at the alignment of its content specialization to the NYSED requirements, reducing the total graduation credits from 127 credits to 120 credits, and reducing the Student Teaching course credits from five to three credits. |