

GRADUATE STUDIES WEEK CELEBRATION

Over 40 programs; most programs take students from all majors

Nationally ranked programs and affordable tuition

Online, face-to-face, and blended programs

Passionate faculty dedicated to meeting your educational needs and goals

Over $500,000 dedicated to graduate student awards, fellowships and assistantships

EVENT
SCHEDULE

Graduate Studies Week

NOVEMBER 2019 11TH - 15TH

11

MON

Veterans Day Open House Tabling For Undergraduates

Marano Campus Center Ice Arena, 10:00a.m.

Join us at the Graduate Studies table for information regarding 5-year programs, the Bachelor PLUS program, and information on the benefits of staying at SUNY Oswego for your graduate degree.

11

MON

Grad-itude Project - All Students Welcome

Marano Campus Center Concourse, Noon - 2:00p.m.

Did you know that individuals who express gratitude on a regular basis have higher levels of optimism, physical well-being, and determination? We recognize that these are essential qualities for graduate students. We will be encouraging all students to write a brief note of appreciation to anyone who has inspired their academic journey. Postcards and postage will be provided.

12

TUE

Calling All Undergraduates: Graduate Studies Pop up

Marano Campus Center Concourse, 10:00a.m. - Noon

If you have a question about graduate studies at SUNY Oswego... come ask Sharon! Sharon Griffin, our graduate admissions counselor, will be available for on-the-spot questions regarding applying, admission and what you really need to know about graduate school.

12

TUE

Pizza With The Dean - All Students Welcome

SUNY Oswego's Syracuse Campus, 5:00 - 6:30p.m.

Meet and greet with the Graduate Dean at SUNY Oswego's Syracuse Campus. Join us to celebrate graduate studies and learn more about our graduate program offerings. Pizza will be provided for all students.

13

WED

Diversity Graduate Fellows Luncheon

By Invitation Only, Noon - 1:30p.m.*

This luncheon will honor the current graduate students who have been selected as Diversity Graduate Fellows program for the 2019-2020 academic year. Guests to the luncheon will include the Vice President of Student Affairs and Enrollment, Vice President of Academic Affairs & Provost, Chief Diversity and Inclusion Office, Director of the EOP program, Dean of Graduate Studies, members of the selection committee, and past fellows.

13

WED

Graduate Student Appreciation Day: Ice Cream Social

Chu Atrium, 2:30 - 3:30p.m.

Graduate students make SUNY Oswego a special place to live and learn. Their contributions and impact are significant. Join us in celebrating all of our current graduate students, with complimentary ice cream and light refreshments.

13

WED

Is Graduate School for Me? Graduate Studies Information Session

133 Marano Campus Center, 4:30 - 5:30p.m.

A student panel of current graduate students will examine the advantages of completing a SUNY Oswego graduate program and discuss the "lessons learned" through their own personal experience. Pizza will be provided.

14

THU

Coffee with the Graduate Dean: Feedback Wanted!

Penfield Library, Lake Effect Cafe, 1:00-2:30p.m.

Join the Dean of the Division of Graduate Studies for coffee. Share your experiences and your ideas. We are eager to hear your feedback.

14

THU

3-Minute Faculty: You Are The Judge!

132 Marano Campus Center Auditorium, 4:30 - 6:30p.m.

3 minute faculty is a competition that celebrates exciting research done by our own SUNY Oswego faculty. In three minutes or less, faculty will be asked to discuss a specific research or creative project by utilizing only one static Power Point slide. $500 in travel support will be awarded. All audience members will determine a winner through a live vote. Registration for this event can be made at: oswego.edu/gradstudies

15

FRI

Graduate Studies Reception

Sheldon Ballroom, 2:00 - 4:00p.m.

Join us for the ultimate Graduate Studies happy hour—complete with live music, wine, and food. Outstanding Graduate Student Awards and Outstanding Mentor Awards will be announced at this event. Mark your calendars!